

17th National Japanese Speech Contest

Accommodations:

Location: Guest rooms on Keele campus, York University

Address: 4700 Keele Street
North York, Ontario
M3J 1P3

Agency: Hospitality York

Contact: Norio Ota <nota@yorku.ca>

Phone: (416)736-2100 ext. 88750

Fax: (416)736-5483

Room:

Guest rooms have been booked for two participants sharing one room for the night of April 1, 2006 under the National Japanese Speech Contest through Hospitality York.

Room sharing:

If you prefer a specific person to share the same room, please let us know in advance. We will do our best to try to accommodate your request.

Airport pick-up:

Participants who fly from other provinces will get picked up at the airport. You may be asked to take a cab to come to York University on your own, depending on the flight schedule. In that case, please submit the receipt to the committee. We will reimburse the fare later.

Dinner reception: April 1, 2006, Saturday, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. (venue TBA)

All the participants are invited to the dinner reception with guests, judges and committee members.

Lunch: April 2, 2006, Sunday, 1:00-2:30 p.m., at the Graduate Lounge (1st floor, North Ross)

All the participants are invited to lunch with guests, judges and committee members.

Shuttle to the airport:

Participants will be driven to the airport after lunch, but if s/he must leave earlier or very late due to the flight schedule, please take a cab to the airport. The fare will be reimbursed, so please send us the receipt.

Special assistance:

If you require any special assistance, please let us know in advance.